

Partnership Opportunities

One educator impacts an average of 3,000 students in their career. Investing in the transformation and mobilization of educators is the most effective way to create exponential impact on students and create cultural shifts within their educational spaces. YEedu is a professional development conference for YE educators, which is designed using best practices in experiential learning in combination with opportunities to build a community of peers from across the country. It inspires YE educators to renew their passion for teaching and to create strong relationships and transformational thinking in the classroom. The conference can also connect educators to supporters and partners, many of whom can create additional opportunities for them and their students outside the classroom walls. An investment in YEedu informs YE educators that they are vitally important to the transformation of the education spaces in which they work.
